

June 23, 2016

Dear Encoder Products Company Customer,

This letter contains our statement regarding the implementation of the European Union's Restriction on Hazardous Substances (RoHS) Directive (2011/65/EU) for the materials/components used by EPC to produce finished goods.

The information contained herein is in regard to All EPC Encoders and Finished Goods Effective January 01, 2007.

Encoder Products Company supports our customers' requirements to maintain compliance with Directive 2011/65/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 8 June 2011 on the restriction of the use of certain hazardous substances in electrical and electronic equipment (RoHS), and all subsequent related Commission Decisions to date.

After careful evaluation of the EU Directive on Restrictions of Hazardous Substances (RoHS), Encoder Products Company hereby certifies that all product lines (encoders, encoder accessories and other finished goods) are fully compliant with EU Directive 2011/65/EU RoHS (version dated 8 June 2011), Restriction of the use of certain Hazardous Substances in electrical and electronic equipment.

EPC is committed to ensuring continued compliance with the requirements of the RoHS regulation.

To the best of my knowledge, the above statements and declarations are true.

Signed,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'James MacLachlan', is written over a light gray rectangular background.

James MacLachlan – Corporate Officer
Encoder Products Company, Inc.
464276 Hwy 95 South
P.O. Box 249
Sagle, ID 83860
ph: 208-263-8541
fax: 208-255-4716